Experience It! The Independent Republic of San Marino

This tiny country is the fifth smallest in the entire world, and the third smallest in all of Europe. At 23.6 square miles, only Monaco and Vatican City are smaller countries than San Marino. Set like a tiny jewel in Italy, surrounded on all sides, it only has a population of just over 30,000 residents. Here, they speak Sanmarinese, Italian, and Romagnol, the oldest dialect of the region. It was founded in 301 A.D. by its namesake, St. Marino, making it the oldest Republic in the world. Its Historic Centre and Mount Titano are beautifully preserved areas that look much like they did during the medieval era, which is why UNESCO declared them a heritage site in 2008, protecting them for future generations.

Explorations: These small group tours give travelers access to the world in a truly authentic way. On these active, immersive journeys, travelers connect with the cultures of the world on a deeper, more meaningful level in ways that are hard to replicate. The group size is kept small, allowing these journeys to be the most active, engaging, and rewarding experience possible.

Important Tour Information:

Economy air rate and schedule are applicable for groups of 10 or more traveling on the same flights and dates.

The overall activity level of this tour is a level 3. This means you're an on-the-go traveler. You don't want to miss a thing, so walking and standing for longer periods of time (2-3 hours) isn't a big deal. A moderately paced two-and-a-half-hour walking tour, covering several miles, hills, and uneven surfaces, is no problem for you. Walking four miles over the course of a day is very doable, as is climbing into and out of various modes of transportation (tuk-tuk, cable car, zodiac, etc.). You can climb three flights of stairs easily and handle altitudes between 6,000 and 9,000 feet. Expect some longer days with early mornings or late nights balanced with free time to recharge or set out on your own adventure. This level is not a fit for travelers who require mobility assistance devices.

Due to motorcoach access restrictions in Florence, your hotel stay will require a 15-minute walk to the property. You will be responsible for carrying your hand luggage to the hotel while larger luggage will be transferred via luggage van.

Agility is required for boarding the gondola boats and motorboats in Venice.

While in Rome, the visit to the Vittoriano roof terrace requires negotiating 2 to 3 flights of steps. The elevator is not accessible for those who require special assistance as it requires climbing steps to reach it and may not be suitable for those suffering from vertigo.

If you require any special assistance while on tour, please make us aware at time of reservation so the necessary request form can be sent to your attention.

The areas featured on this tour require extensive walking over cobblestones, uneven and often narrow sidewalks, and occasionally unpaved terrain with loose gravel. For your comfort, we recommend bringing well broken-in walking shoes.

*****The Vatican Museums and Sistine Chapel are closed on Catholic holidays, May 1 and on most Sundays (the Museums are open the last Sunday of the month and are free of charge: because of that, lines are usually longer than on other days). The Vatican Museums require advanced reservation to access. In order to avoid standing in long lines, we suggest you reserve your ticket online prior to departure if you plan to visit during your free time in Rome. While there is no reservation required (or available) for Saint Peter's Basilica, you must be prepared for long lines and security checks. Due to the large crowds expected around the 2025 Catholic Holy Year, you may experience higher than average wait times for entering the Vatican Museums, Sistine Chapel, and St. Peter's Basilica. Due to heightened security measures, it is forbidden to enter these sites and museums with handbags and backpacks larger than 16 x 14 x 6 inches (40 x 35 x 15 cm).

****During weekends and school holidays, the visit to the culinary vocational school will be replaced by a visit to the Pavarotti museum, and lunch will take place at a local balsamic vinegar producer.

****Most museums in Florence are closed on Mondays, including the Academy Gallery and the Uffizi, as are other state museums. Most state museums in Florence require reservations to access. In order to avoid standing in long lines, we suggest you reserve your ticket online prior to departure if you plan to visit the Academy Gallery or the Uffizi during your free time in Florence.

Days of features are interchangeable.

In Italy, some of the most unique sightseeing can mean accessing locations that forbid motor coaches from circulating, especially in the historic areas of Venice, Ravenna, San Marino, Florence, Orvieto and Rome.

**On occasion, due to inclement weather, your boat trip to Murano Island may be substituted with a visit to a local glass factory, and your gondola boat ride may be substituted with a motorboat transfer. In Rome, your food tour may be served in a local restaurant instead.

*Exact concert program is confirmed 6 months ahead of your tour departure date and is subject to change. Occasionally the orchestra may be on tour and unavailable.

Most shops and businesses in Italy are closed on Sundays and on national/religious holidays.

***Bring your passport to San Marino if you would like to have it stamped with the country's entry visa.

When reserving single accommodations, be advised that single rooms in Italy are often smaller in size.

Single accommodations are limited and are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Single rate subject to change based on availability.

To complete your tour, we include roundtrip airport-to-hotel transfers when purchasing our airfare with your tour. If you have arranged for your own air, we are pleased to provide you the option of purchasing these transfers. Please note that all transfers will leave at pre-scheduled times.

For air-inclusive reservations, the name provided at time of booking must match your government-issued ID that will be used during travel. Name changes are subject to penalties.

Please be advised many airlines do not provide advance seat assignments until check-in at the airport. Advance seating will be subject to the airline's terms and conditions.
